

“Related Party” means any person that, at any point during the period of time between the (i) purchase of the applicable ticket, or (ii) in the case of instant win tickets, the activation of the applicable ticket, and the applicable prize claim was:

- (i) an employee, officer, director or agent of ALC, the Interprovincial Lottery Corporation or a regulatory body with regulatory authority over ALC, its ticket lottery operations or its suppliers referred to in paragraph (c) below;
- (ii) a Retailer or Retailer Employee;
- (iii) an employee, officer, director or agent of: an ALC supplier of lottery tickets or ticket lottery systems or a supplier of auditing and security services related to ALC lottery tickets and ticket lottery systems who are/were involved in providing these supplies/services or supervising or managing the provision of these supplies/services; and
- (iv) Immediate Family Members of those referred to in (a), (b) and (c).

“Immediate Family Member” means:

- (i) a spouse (including common law), fiancée, sibling, parent or child of those referred to in (a), (b) or (c) above, whether or not they reside or resided with the person referred to in (a), (b) or (c); or
- (ii) any other person or relative, including by marriage, that currently resides, or resided at any point during the applicable period referred to above, with any person referred to in (a), (b) or (c) above.

“Retailer” means any person contracted by ALC under an ALC Lottery Ticket Retailer Agreement to sell lottery tickets and provide lottery services and includes the principals, owners, agents and/or operators of the Retailer who have signed the Lottery Ticket Retailer Agreement in their personal capacity.

“Retailer Employee” means any person employed by, or otherwise acting on behalf of, a Retailer where that person is involved in, or directly supervises or manages those involved in, the handling and/or sale of lottery tickets, the validation of lottery tickets or the provision of lottery services.